Follow their trials and tribulations in this heart-warming tale of achievement, hope, heart, commitment, friendship, strength, and survival. A must see lively musical, the show promises to be a colorful and entertaining multi-cultural experience and rich diversity of the people who built Kuala Lumpur.

We will take a short walk down memory lane of the city. The tour starts from the Independence Square and will take you to the some historical landmarks located surrounding the historical patch of the field. Your guide will share with you interesting facts and history of KL, from her birth place at the confluence of two rives with a few shanty wooden houses to become the metropolitan and one of the financial capitals of South East Asia. Tour ended and transfer back to the hotel. You may opt to continue to explore the city on your own and visit nearby attractions such as the boisterous Chinatown and the oldest temple in the city Sri Maha Mariamman Temple.
