Come and experience the feeling of being in the tropical rainforest within the city limits of Kuala Lumpur! This program is specially designed to introduce the wonders and beauty of a primary tropical rainforest. Approximately an hour's journey to the outskirts of the city, you will pass through typical Malay villages where you can catch a glimpse of local villagers going about with their daily chores as well as indigenous people's villages. Our first stop is the Aboriginal Museum. Amongst items displayed are hunting weapons, clothing made from tree barks, traditional musical instruments and wood carvings.

After the 2-hour trek (includes time to frolic at an idyllic waterfall), you can test your shooting skills with a blowpipe, fish with a bamboo pole (catch & release) at a nearby fresh water pond, splash about the nearby running stream, take a dip in the swimming pool or just lounge under the sun while enjoying lush tropical surroundings. Be prepared to get your shoes wet when threading on streams and river, during trekking.

Notes:

- Wear comfortable walking shoes/sandals (you will get them wet), mosquito repellent, hat/cap, drinking water, bath towel, extra change of clothes and extra pair of shoes/slippers.
- Aboriginal Museum is closed every Friday.
