Approximately 1 hour 45 minutes drive towards the State of Pahang, we will stop by at the aborigine settlement to have an insight of the aborigine culture of Malaysia. After that we will proceed to Kuala Gandah Elephant Sanctuary. This conservation centre is run by The Department of Wildlife and National Parks. The main task of the department's staffs is locating, subduing and then trans-locating elephants from areas where their habitats have been destroyed in the name of urbanization. The centre strives to highlight the plights of elephants and educate the public about the importance of habitat and environmental preservation. Over the past 25 years, the centre has helped in preventing further decline of elephant population by relocating more than 300 wild elephants.

Tour includes elephant show, elephant feeding and for the brave, a water activity of bathing with the baby elephants in the river. Inclusive of lunch. (Please see notes).

Notes:

- Wear comfortable shoes and hat / cap.
- Bring along bath towel and spare clothing in case you get wet or dirty.
- Bathing activity would be cancel if water level is dangerous.

Optional:

Bathing with baby elephant – RM10 [for bathing activity, compulsory to hire a park guide – RM30 per guide (maximum 10 person per guide)]

Important remark: Please be informed that in line with the sanctuary's enhanced approach in conservation practices, the elephant riding activity has been discontinued in the centre. The new regulation is enforced to avoid causing distress to the elephants and enabling them to live in their natural environment as much as possible.
